

Satellite radio provides traffic and weather on a more timely basis than the local stations. If something happens between scheduled broadcasts on my local stations, they do not break in to inform of a problem. If I use only the local stations, I am stuck in traffic before I get the news of a problem. The Satellite radio information is more detailed and covers more locations.